Author

Ace Vitangcol grew up in Las Piñas City, Philippines. He loved reading Charles Schulz's Peanuts comics, and eventually became an avid fan of Anne Rice's novels.

As a young boy, Ace attended Southville International School where he spent his free time writing fiction and fantasy stories. He completed his first novel, The Lady of the Mind, shortly before going to college.

Ace received his Bachelor of Fine Arts in Creative Writing degree (focusing on fiction) from Ateneo de Manila University. He then founded Alturia Hill Publishing.

Volume 1 of his first series, Love is in the Bag, was published in 2008; this series has been nominated for several Philippine comics awards. He has just released the third volume of a new series, Angel Crush, this past April.

Ace hopes to continue writing and teaching for many years to come.
